

I am opposed to further consolidation of the media. The news becomes too dependent on editorial censorship from above. There is too little time devoted to truly local coverage. Stations already are adding a tiny bit of local news to a general newscast that airs everywhere. Our independent news agencies are the only ones breaking certain stories on corporate malfeasance. Please don't make it even tougher to get timely and important news.